Life History of Master Xuankong

Original name: Zhao Xuwen. Male, Han nationality. Ninety years old. Buddhist name: Xuankong. He was born in 1920 to a well known Chinese medical doctor family of Wuhu City in Anhui Province, China. He went to Shanghai to study herbal medicine and martial arts from the most famous medical doctor and martial artist Wangziping when he was 9 years old. He traveled afar one year and went to Shaolin Temple because of the war in Dongbei Province. The name Xuankong was given after his conversion at that time. After that, he studied Buddhism and specialized in Yijinjing (tendon-changing classic) , the internal work of Zen Buddhism which was invented by Bodhidharma. After so many years of devoted study and asceticism, he finally became accomplished in superior Yijinjing Qigong treatment of disease. Master Xuankong is skilled at Qigong medical treatment, Qigong testing disease, bone setting and herbal medicine prescription. Much rare illness has been cured by his magical treatment. The people living in the Yangtze River area praise him as a living Buddha and distinguished doctor.

Looking back on his life, we can find that Master Xuankong has experienced the hardships that we can not tolerate; has gone the way that we can not go. At last he acquired the soul of Yijinjing (tendon-changing classic) treatment. He is the oldest traditional medical doctor in China, one of the best known doctors in the nation, a hermit in the Qigong and martial arts field, and also a sainted dervish in China. It is hard to express in words his 70 years self-giving devotion to Yijinjing Qigong research and treatment. In his life he has accumulated and summarized a most valuable clinical experience and medical knowledge, especially in development of human health and scientific applications.

He combined Yijinjing Qigong with Chinese traditional medical clinical principles together to create unprecedented miracles. He uses the Yijinjing Qigong to emit Qi to patients within a certain distance. This Qi will cure the disease of the patients or make them healthier and stronger. Even the rare illness which is difficult to treat and diagnose clinically can be cured effectively by this Yijinjing Qigong within a short period of time. The variety of diseases include internal, surgical and other diseases curable by the external Qi emission treatment or by attacking a certain vital point. It is especially effective for emphysema, malignant asthma and malignant cough which result from indolent tracheitis. The Yijinjing Qigong treatment is also effective for different kinds of pain. Now, Master Xuankong would like to consecrate and teach all his magical Qigong method and medical experience to benefit more people in the world.

The Yijinjing Qigong of Master Xuankong is effective magically. He has saved numerous peoples' lives and treated countless patients during these past 70 years. Many severe and lingering illnesses were cured and disappeared within one day. So his name has been famous for so many years in the world. His skills of treatment are beyond comprehension by the other traditional or western medical doctors. He won respect and admiration from all the patients and acquaintances.

The patients came to see Doctor Master Xuankong from all over the world during the past 30 years. Master Xuankong is good at curing rare illness which the other doctors can not cure. Many patients have been to so many hospitals in the world to see so many famous doctors, but failed to have curative effect. They come to see Master Xuankong out of admiration for his fame. The disease disappeared unconsciously under the treatment of Master Xuankong. He is truly a highly skilled doctor.

He was invited to more than 60 countries such as USA, Japan, England, France, Germany, Singapore and Israel. He went there to conduct Qigong medical conferences. He earned the best reputation and complements for his highly skilled art of healing and sublime virtue. He has provided treatment for such notables as: Denglijun, a famous singer in Hong Kong; and Wahid, former president of Indonesia.
